

Andrew Forsyth

Principal Town Planner

Andrew is a passionate urban planning professional with more than fifteen years (15) of experience in the provision of consultancy services to property developers and asset managers throughout Queensland.

His experience covers a wide range of development projects including the preparation and management of development applications, negotiation of development outcomes and provision of technical advice.

QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor of Built Environment (Urban Regional Planning)

EXPERIENCE

- Property consulting services
- Due diligence
- Constraint analysis & technical advice
- Preparation of development approvals, strategies & applications
- Management of multidisciplinary consultant teams
- Complex mixed use residential & tourist accommodation projects
- Supermarket anchored retail centres
- Negotiation of development outcomes
- Master planning for redevelopment of large infill sites

PROJECTS

- Large scale mixed use projects, including 'Hilton Surfers Paradise', 'Sundale Tower' and 'Southport Central'.
- Local and district retail centres, including 'Hope Island Town Centre', 'Pimpama Junction', 'Woolworths Upper Coomera' and 'Foxwell Road Centre'.
- Master planning for the redevelopment of large infill sites, including 'Runaway Bay Marina', 'Star of the Sea' and 'Cienna'
- Expression of interest submissions for the development of State and Local Government property assets.